They Grow Whiskers On The Battlefront

PRIVATE ROGER F. PITCOCK

"March 16, 1945

"Dear Mr. Pope: You asked me one time to send you my picture, so here it is. Do you think I could use a shave?..."

"Well, sir, at first we thought this old Hamlinite was "spoofing" and that the "mustache" was "synthetic" ...but later we met his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Pitcock, on the street and we asked, "Mrs. Pitcock, do you reckon that's really Roger?"

"Sure, that's my boy, Roger."

"Do you reckon he has a 'real' mustache like that?" we queried.

"Why, yes, they are real. He looks just like his father did at that age, except Mr. Pitcock did not wear such a funny looking cap...he's just like his Daddy." And then the dear old mother showed where she stands on the war issue. She added, "I told Roger it is all right for you to try to look like Stalin, but you'd better not try to imitate old Hitler!" So the fighting spirit in this war is back here in the hearts of such grand old fathers and mothers as Mr. and Mrs. Pitcock. But now let's go on with the soldier letter...

"This is my first pass in the ETO and did I feel good to get away from the old routine! Most of us were pretty tired and didn't have much time to ourselves, but we made the best of everything. I have been getting the paper and I saw the piece about the German money I sent you. It is worth about 9 cents in our money. You spoke about wanting me to get hold of a lot of it and burn it...there was a captain over here who burned up $20,000.00 and then found it was still good, but it was the only thing he had to beat his rations with. I am sending you a clipping about my outfit, so you will know I haven't been on a fishing trip on the bank of the Rhine."

Roger has been in the service since January 1942 and spent 16 months in New Zealand, a year back in the States, and went overseas last fall. He was slightly wounded on January 10, 1945, in Belgium. He is in the 134th Infantry, 35th Division, that crossed the Rhine River at Wesel, up near Holland.

PRIVATE TROY FORD
Killed in Action, Feb. 27, 1945

No further word has been reported on the death of Private Troy Ford, of 3rd Marine Corps, who met death fighting for his country on Iwo Jima, February 27, 1945. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ford of the Wise Chapel community.

NOTICE, DOG OWNERS

The City Council has voted to revive and put into effect, May 1, 1945, the Ordinance making it unlawful for any dog to run at large upon any street or public grounds within the City of Hamlin without having a City of Hamlin Dog Tag, for current calendar year, securely attached to a collar. Said tags may be secured at the City Hall, $1.00 for male and $2.00 for female dogs. Any dog caught running at large after May 1st will be killed.

0-O Vote Sat., April 7 For Two School Trustees

We urge the qualified voters of the Hamlin Ind. School District to vote in the election to be held Saturday, April 7, to elect two School Trustees, vacancies being created by the retirement of J. Ubben and Craig Elmore.

Nominees for these two places are Delma Shelburne, Joe Moser, Clarence Bailey, and Claude Lancaster. L. H. McBride, Chm. School Board

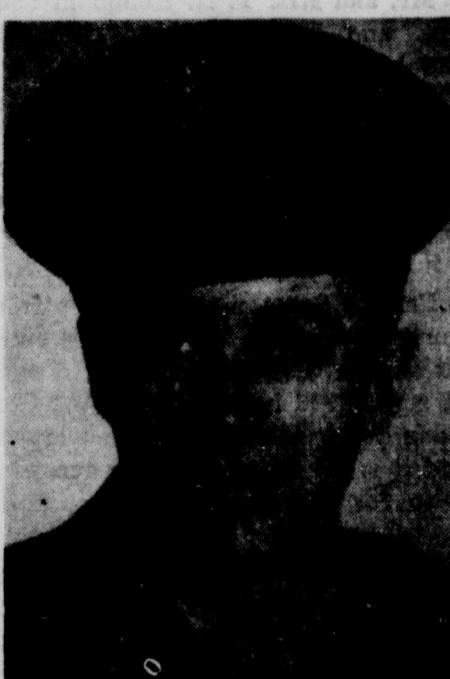

0-O Farmers Co-Op. Gin Neinda Community

Farmers Co-Op. Gin of Neinda community, will hold their annual meeting at the Neinda School, at 10:00 A. M., Saturday, April 7, to elect two directors and to distribute final dividend checks for the cotton season just closed. All farmers interested in the gin, whether they grow cotton or not, are invited to attend this meeting.

TWO BROTHERS HAVE A REMARKABLE PARALLEL IN SERVICE—BOTH WOUNDED

PRIVATE H. DOYLE JONES

"Philippine Islands
March 14, 1945

"Dear Mr. Pope: Just to let you know that my brother, Rex, and I have moved up from New Guinea and joined the 32nd Division. I'm some 5 months or about 19 Heralds behind now. Maybe they'll catch up some day, though.

"Here is a little something that Ripley might not rate as tops, but it is something to my brother and me, anyway. Although Rex is three years younger than myself, we were inducted into the Army the SAME day; left for the SAME camp to take our basic training; made a change of a total of four different camps in the States TOGETHER; sailed on the SAME boat for New Guinea; spent the SAME length of time there; sailed for the Philippines TOGETHER; were placed in the SAME Division (32nd, but in different Companies—split up for the first time); went into Front Line combat in different places—THEN on the 19th, on the SAME consecutive day of combat, for each of us, we were BOTH wounded and met, being flown into the SAME hospital by the SAME plane, after being separated only 19 days. We are in the SAME ward now, side-by-side, both with identical wounds. The day we were both wounded was March 12th, our DAD'S (R. M. Jones) birthday, incidentally. Just a coincidence, I guess, but a strange one to say the least.

"Some of the larger cities here in the Philippines are pretty nice, Mr. Pope, and they have some good looking American and Filipino nurses over here, too."

"Hope everything is Okay back home, and best of luck to you... DOYLE."

"As you see, these two boys are sons of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Jones, Route 3, Hamlin. In a more recent letter, Doyle made light of their wounds, but Rex was unable to write. They have been sent to a general hospital, and we understand that they have been awarded the Purple Heart and the Bronze Star, since getting into the new combat area.

Perhaps The Last Letter Before Death

PFC. SIDNEY R. TEAGUE

Killed in Action in Germany

"Somewhere in Germany, March 12
"Dearest Mother and Kids: I'll try and write you a little bit this morning. It is rather early to be writing. It is only five o'clock, but now adays I have to write just any time I get a chance. Don't have any news to tell, just about the same. I am well and doing pretty good, but sure am getting tired of combat—need a little rest, I guess.

"Mother, my Buddie that I am always speaking of—you know—he got killed a couple of days ago. The darned Germans got him. They will pay for all this, in the end. How is Roy liking the Army now? I hope he likes the Inf. better than I do. Well, it's pretty darned rough over here. I have gone two days over here without food—that's really rough. I will be so glad when we all get home again. Well, I'll close for now, will write again when I get the next opportunity. So keep writing me, Mother. Lots of love, SID."

(Sidney, perhaps never got another "opportunity," as indicated by the further information published

This is "CLEAN-OUT-YOUR- CLOTHES-CLOSET WEEK"

RIGHT-NOW, 125 million innocent men, women, and children in war-torn European countries alone, are in pitifully desperate need of clothing. If every American family will make this week "CLEAN-OUT-YOUR-CLOTHES-CLOSET WEEK," enough spare clothing, shoes, and bed-clothes will be obtained to go far toward relieving the suffering of these people. Will you help? Then call your local UNCC Committee for full information.

GIVE N-O-W TO THE UNITED NATIONAL CLOTHING COLLECTION DRIVE

FOR OVERSEAS WAR RELIEF

1. The drive is on NOW. Collections in Hamlin will be made all during the month of April, under the sponsorship of the Hamlin Lions Club.
2. Urgently needed are all types of serviceable used winter and summer clothing for MEN, WOMEN, CHILDREN, and INFANTS. This includes: Overcoats, topcoats, suits, dresses, blouses, shirts, skirts, jackets, pants, work clothes, gloves, underclothing, sleeping garments, all kinds of knit goods, robes, shawls, sweaters.
3. SHOES, preferably of a durable type with low or medium heels, are desperately needed, too. Shoes should be mated and TIED securely into pairs.
4. BEDDING OF ALL TYPES: Blankets, quilts, afghans, sheets, and pillow cases.
5. For your convenience, clean, wooden barrels have been placed in five locations to receive your donations: at the Post Office, the City Hall, the Bank, the Grammar School, and the High School. Regular collections will be made by committees who will sort, classify, and pack the clothing for shipment.

Two Councilmen Elected For Hamlin

Tuesday's City Election was a mild affair, with a few over 80 votes cast in a four-candidate ticket for two Aldermen.

O. D. Roland lead the ticket, followed by Ivy Witt, who edged out R. H. McCurdy. When W. L. Cash went up to vote, he found his name on the ticket, and thus joined as the second man to be left out. It was a case of 4 up and 2 down. Maybe the losers got the best deal. Congratulations, boys. The New Aldermen are already getting applications for "ditch cleaning, alley clean-ups, hog pen eradication, dog taggings, etc." Stay in there. Maybe some day one or both of you may get to be Mayor of Hamlin.

James Furniture Company Enlarges Floor Space

Recently Otto James acquired the building formerly occupied by the L. L. Cowan Tailoring firm, and this week he has been busy remodeling and repainting the interior which will be used as floor display space for James Furniture Co. Also Mr. James has acquired the iron building formerly occupied by John Vaughan Welding, which will give ample and safe storage space for the company.

About Soldiers--Sailors

Corporal Olan Stuart returned on March 25 from about 15 months' service in the European Theater of Operations to spend 15 days with his mother, Mrs. A. A. Stuart. He is connected with the transportation. Olan will return to his command overseas.

S&S

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Hemphill, Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Chas. W. Hemphill and baby, Charlotte, and Miss Betty Hooper of Plainview spent the week end in San Antonio, where Sgt. Hemphill went for reassignment orders. After 21 days, he will report to Hot Springs, Ark.

S&S

Private Raymond Alls writes from Germany that he is not having much luck in getting the Herald. He says, "I surely will be glad when the Germans decide they have been whipped and it is all over with. Tell everyone hello for me."

S&S

Lt. J. R. Elliott came down last Friday night from Yuma, Ariz., to spend a few days here with his wife and baby and his parents, before going on to the Lincoln, Neb., Army Air Field for more advanced training. He completed his course in handling the big 4-engine B-17's at Yuma, and maybe next it will be practicing combat and bombing. J. R. is developing into a real flyer after his long experience as a "foot soldier."

S&S

Albert C. Hill, S 1/c, sends his first letter from the Philippine area. Hill is a Hitson boy and wants the folks back here to know he is not loafing. He says, "You can see we are giving those little yellow devils plenty of trouble now (March 20). I was in the landing on Leyte but was not in the big sea battle but was close enough. They had us on the 'Running Sun'... Well, Mr. Pope, I still have a few Heralds stuck around, as I enjoy reading them. I always look forward to getting them and keeping up with the people around Hamlin." (If Hill could see the Hitson country now, it would look mighty good to him—green, wet and prosperous.)

S&S

"Texans in England" is a little organization that now has expanded to "Texans in the ETO." They recently had a meeting in Paris and had a rollicky time, and why not? When a band of Texas boys get together, everybody around will soon know about it. We have a list of the charter members and we are glad to see the name of Eddie Freedman, a fine fellow, who formerly lived in Hamlin, but now of Washington, D. C. However, Eddie still claims "Friendly Hamlin."

Aviation Chief Machinist Mate James I. Steed and his wife, the former Miss Sally Cabry of Philadelphia, arrived on Thursday of last week to visit their grandfather, R. L. Harris, and aunt, Miss Emma Harris, after having stopped in Arlington, Texas, to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James I. Steed. This is the second time James has brought his wife to Hamlin, being here last July for a short visit. James has a good rating in the Navy, and in a few weeks, he will take duty on one of the U. S. largest aircraft carriers. He spent over three years on active sea duty in the Pacific, on his favorite ship, the Pensacola.

S&S

Coxswain Lewis F. Tidwell, son of Mrs. Mitt Tidwell of Grand Prairie, arrived from the Pacific after having been away 21 months on a big battleship that took him into many combat actions. He wears a long service ribbon with four bronze stars and one silver star which multiplies the bronze by five, making nine bronze. His sharpest conflict was in Leyte Gulf where the Japs got what was coming to them.

S&S

Archie Carson, SK 2/c, who has seen plenty of action in the recent campaigns of the Pacific area, arrived March 27 to spend a 20-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Carson, of near McCauley. He has been in service about two years, entering the Navy just after his graduation from Hamlin High School in 1943.

Archie has had 13 months active sea duty on a carrier, and wears the American Theater, the Asiatic Theater and the Philippine ribbons, with six stars representing campaigns of New Guinea, Saipan, Truk, Leyte, Luzon, and places right in Japan's front yard.

S&S

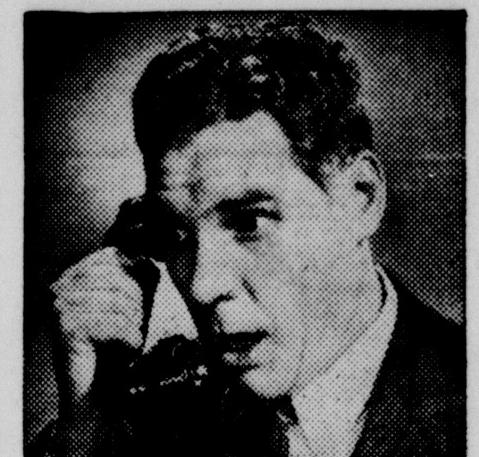

Wilson Crow is one Hamlin boy who reveals that he is not letting anything skip his eyes. He writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Crow and lists practically all of the cities in North Africa, Italy and Southern France, and many things of what he has seen. He said, "I got a Herald the other day with the column in it by Brother Lynch. It is really good." (Well, this is one proof that Minister Lynch, of the Hamlin Church of Christ, is getting his messages over to some of the boys on the battle line. When Wilson gets back home, we hope to go out on the lake some nice day and listen to him talk and talk.)

S&S

J. L. Blanton, S 2/c, arrived from San Diego, Calif., last Saturday to spend a week here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Blanton. He has transferred to the Naval Air Corps.

News of Servicemen

Paul W. Griffin writes from Germany that he is very glad to get his first Hamlin papers... "Their dates were old but the news was greatly welcome... We have just made a most successful drive of ten miles, running the Jerries up one hill and down another... They just don't seem to relish the American lead... In a recent visit in Belgium, I ran into the smiling face of Lt. Hub Hyatt, also Lt. B. L. Jones, Jr. They both look fine, and we had a long talk on points that have proven helpful to me. I understand that Bill Scott is within a few miles of me, and from all reports they are doing some good fighting. May God speed victory to us and our return back to our beloved Country. Best wishes to all. —Paul Griffin." (Paul dated his letter on March 10, and Lt. Hyatt was killed March 1, evidently soon after meeting Griffin.)

S&S

Three cheers for our old friend, Pfc. Roma Brown, who sends us a letter from Belgium. Roma sent two "money bills," crazy looking things, but guess it means something to the "Belgie." This soldier says, "I still get the Herald now and then, and boy, does it make me feel happy to read about the boys overseas, not 'cause they're so unlucky to be over here, but 'cause they are so close to me when they are overseas—no matter where they are, they are doing their best to make this a better world for our boys and girls. I hope no other children will have to go through this again. It is a cost that no one can guess, 'cause money will not pay for lives... Well, about what Geo. Darden said about people beefing about cigarettes is sure right. I would quit smoking to be in a country that is free like the U.S. or TEXAS. I am sorry for the ones who don't get a supply of packages. I did without any for two months in the Aleutians, and it wasn't cigarettes that bothered me—it was my life, or would I ever get to see my family again. If I were in the States, I would like anything and would be happy to know I had a roof over my head and a little to eat, and not any C Ration or K—just enough to go on—just potatoes and bread and milk and the little things I used to get. After all, the people back home are safe and sound, and why worry about cigarettes?—Love to all, from Roma."

S&S

Corporal Alpha Butler is still "somewhere in Germany." He wrote us on March 18, saying: "I have been a pretty busy fellow the past seven months or more. We started chasing the Heines on June 6, 1944, and have been at it ever since. They are a hard nut to crack, but I think we are beginning to break the shell now. I am sending you a clipping from a paper printed here for the soldiers, giving you some idea what we have been doing." (That clipping is a matter of history; it covers all the way from the West coast through the bloody Hurtgen Forrest, on through the Siegfried Line, and the outfit was the first to enter German soil, Sept. 11.) Butler says, "There are several Hamlin men at home who were in this famous FOURTH DIV. in the last war. John Stonesifer is one of the men... Well, how is the old city doing? My paper gets here but is about two months old. I read all about the boys and can only wish them the best of luck. I am looking forward to coming back to good old Hamlin some day. Harold Green is in the same Division as I am but is in another battalion. He was awarded a citation not long ago. I have been in every part of the Western Front, except Holland; I have been very fortunate and I pray God to help me carry on. Give my regards to everyone. Keep up the good work on the home front.—Cpl. Alpha Butler."

Mister Peltz Is Peeved!

Mister P. sells charts. Pie-charts, bar-charts, fever-charts—in pink and green and purple—proving anything you want.

He has a nice new chart on the cost of living. It shows the price of practically everything curving sharply up after war began.

But one price stubbornly stays down at pre-war levels. It's the price of electricity. It upsets the neat cost-of-living curves. It upsets P. P. Peltz. He's peev'd.

We're sorry to offend Mister Peltz, but glad that we've been able to keep electricity plentiful and cheap when so many things are scarce and expensive.

It hasn't been easy to serve busy homes and booming war plants at the same time—with the friendly, efficient service we like to give. But all our folks have pitched in and worked hard to make it possible.

UNITED NATIONAL CLOTHING COLLECTION
for Overseas War Relief

April 1 marked the beginning of the United National Clothing Collection, a united effort on the part of UNRRA (United National Relief and Rehabilitation Administration) and various voluntary war relief agencies of the United States to help gather clothing, for both winter and summer wear, to be sent overseas for the relief of peoples in war ravaged countries.

The clothing collection in Hamlin began this week under the sponsorship of the Hamlin Lions Club, with Clarence Bailey serving as chairman. People of Hamlin community and territory are urged to respond to this drive whole-heartedly and support it as they have always supported worthy causes.

The goal of the nation is to provide 150 million pounds of clothing for those men, women and children who have suffered so greatly and given so much for the same lasting peace that we are all fighting for. Demands of the United States' armed forces and civilian needs are so great that very little new clothing can be spared for overseas relief. Therefore, you are urged to go through your closets and give items of clothing that you have discarded—clothing which is still serviceable, but which you yourself will no longer wear. You are not asked to deprive yourself of any thing you will need or use. Give only those garments which will no longer be of service to you. By doing this, you will help those who have helped to fight your war, who have suffered unbelievable hardships so that you wouldn't have to, who have helped to keep the blood and gore of war on the other side of the water, away from your home.

For your convenience, the Lions have placed clean, wooden barrels at five collecting stations to receive donations: at the Grammar School, High School, Post Office, Bank, and City Hall. Committees will collect the clothing regularly from the barrels, delivering it to a central station where it will be sorted, classified and packed for shipment. All underclothing and cotton garments should be washed before donated, but need not be ironed.

All the serviceable used summer and winter garments you can spare is urgently needed. This includes men's, women's, children's, and infants' wear and shoes. Overcoats, topcoats, suits, dresses, shirts, pants, skirts, jackets, work clothes, gloves, underwear, sleeping garments, robes, sweaters, shawls, and all knit goods. Also urgently needed are blankets, quilts, and all types of bedclothes. Shoes of a durable type with low or medium heels are needed; shoes

"Atonement For Sin"

THE NEW TESTAMENT ON ATONEMENT

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, the world was still enmeshed in the coils of sin and needed a "covering" as badly as it ever did. When the angel announced that "he... shall save his people from their sins" (Matt. 1:21), it was implied that they were lost, and that their sacrificial system was not adequate ultimately to "cover" their sins. And when John the Baptist pointed to Jesus with the announcement, "Behold, the Lamb of God, that taketh away the sin of the world!" he was clearly pointing out Jesus as a sacrifice whose blood would "cover" the sins of all those who were in covenant relationship with God and remove them (their sins) forever from his sight.

We are definitely told by the writer of Hebrews that "apart from shedding of blood there is no remission" (Heb. 9:22); with equal definiteness he tells us that "it is impossible that the blood of bulls and goats should take away sins" (Heb. 10:4). Let us put these ideas together. Only blood can "cover" sins and thus bring remission to the sinner. During the ages of preparation of the perfect system God accepted the blood of dumb animals as a temporary covering for the sins of those in covenant relationship with himself, but the temporariness of the scheme was emphasized by its yearly recurrence. The writer is insisting that only the blood of Christ can "cover" sins permanently, only his life is an acceptable substitute for the life of man, only through Him can man be saved.

The high priest of the old covenant entered the most holy place once each year with the blood of the animal sacrifices to make remembrance of sins. (Heb. 10:3) The writer no longer calls it an "atonement," because it did not permanently cover sins. But once at the end of the ages Christ has entered the holy place (heaven) with His own blood to make atonement for sins. Jesus' work need not be repeated once each year, nor ever. His work was adequate, perfect, eternally acceptable to God. Sins covered by His blood can never again display themselves before the sight of God.

SUMMARY

The conclusion of the foregoing discussion can best be stated and remembered in the form of a summary. (1) By sin man is alienated from God. (2) The seriousness of an offense against God demands the death penalty. (3) Man has a choice between paying the penalty himself (by suffering damnation of body and soul) or of accepting a substitute whose blood atones for (covers) his sin from God. (4) This gracious provision extends only to those who are in covenant relationship with God. (5) All who refuse to enter into such relationship thereby accept full responsibility for their sins, reject God's offer of mercy, and resign themselves to eternal condemnation.

CONCLUSION

Since sin is so serious that one's eternal destiny depends on his relationship to it, and since one has no "covering" for his sin if he is out of covenant relationship with God, the establishment of the proper relations with God is a problem of the greatest conceivable importance. Sin is the disease and the blood of Christ is the remedy. The thing that we all need to know and want to know is how to so apply the blood of our crucified Saviour so as to save our souls. In instructing spirit filled Apostles as to how to do this very thing, Jesus said (Matt. 28:19-20), "Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you: and lo, I am with thee always, even unto the end of the world." Mark records the commission thus (Mark 16:15-16), "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to the whole creation. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that disbelieveth shall be condemned." Peter in carrying out this commission said to the convicted believing multitude on Pentecost, "Repent ye and be baptized everyone of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of your sins." (Acts 2:38). In these passages we see the divine plan—faith to change the heart, destroying the love of sin, repentance to change the will, destroying the habit of sin, baptism into the name of the Sacred Three, destroying the guilt of Sin. Some one asks, does the water wash one's sins away? To which we reply: No, a thousand times no! It is the blood of Christ that saves us. Faith is not our Saviour; it is Jesus. Repentance is not our Saviour; it is the blood of Christ. Baptism is not our Saviour; it is the blood of Christ, but in applying this blood, Jesus said, "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved." Peter said, "Repent ye and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of your sins." We are cleansed by the blood but Paul said that we are "Cleansed with the washing of water by the word." (Eph. 5:25.) We are washed in the blood, but we are commanded to "arise and be baptized and wash away our sins." (Acts 22:16) Truly there is a fountain filled with blood drawn from Immanuel's veins, yea sinners plunged beneath its flood lose all their guilty stains. Will you let the blood of Christ "Cover" your sins? Then believe on Jesus, repent of your sins, confess your faith in Christ and be baptized for the remission of your sins.
